

STEP INTO SIXTH FORM

TASK 3: HUMANITIES

INTRODUCTION VIDEO

Watch our video introduction here.

TASK

In the 1960s basketball player Wilt Chamberlain became a millionaire. Is it right that he pays far more tax to help the less well off or does he deserve to keep what he has earned by his skill and talent?

Each of our 5 Humanities subjects will offer you a task relating to the above themes. Use the hour you have to sample at least 2 of them.

STARTER TASK : Have a go at the Rawls-Nozick Quiz to test your political 'gut instincts'. Then have a go at 2 of the subject tasksheets below

WEBSITES AND ONLINE LEARNING MATERIALS

Politics : Is the UK fair? How would we decide whether our current systems are fair or not? Worksheet here

Philosophy : If you were making a society from scratch, what rules might you have? Rawls' veil of ignorance experiment. Worksheet here

History: Wilt Chamberlain overcomes the odds to be a successful black man in a segregated America. Worksheet on civil rights here

Religious Studies: What would Jesus say? Explore some Christian perspectives on fairness. Worksheet here

Classical Civilisation: Is it fair to honour the unjust? Ancient and modern debates on statues. Worksheet here

CONTACT

For any questions about your Step Into Sixth Form Task please select the Humanities, Languages & Literature Pathway via the chat function vtour.stokesfc.ac.uk