One of the Sixth Form College's most talented performers, Laura Watson, a dancer and musician, as well as gifted academic, is progressing to LIPA to study Dance, after receiving a set of outstanding results this Summer.

Laura's impressive results include three A grades, an A* and a Distinction* in Dance (Contemporary) BTEC. Laura studied a mixed programme of courses made up of A Levels and BTECs.

Consistently proving to be an inspirational dancer and a hardworking student, Laura has excelled in her studies and as a result she received offers to study Dance at some of the country's most prestigious dance schools. Out of a range, Laura has chosen to study at the Liverpool Institute of Performing Arts and she is thrilled.
