at Performers College, Essex

Sarah is an incredibly talented and resilient dancer and choreographer who has a creative intelligence combined with a mature sense of self-motivation which makes her an absolute pleasure to teach and to know. Her dedication, focus and commitment to dance is highly impressive and we have never known her to give any less than 100%. Sarah is a shining example of the 'thinking dancer' and she has a creative intelligence combined with a mature sense of self-motivation which makes her an absolute pleasure to teach. She is an exceptional individual talent with a passion for Dance and Musical Theatre which we are certain will lead her into a successful and deeply fulfilling career in the Performing Arts industry. We are thrilled that Sarah has gained a place on the Musical Theatre degree course at the renowned conservatoire Performers College.
